5 Free Rebooking Text Templates

Copy. Paste. Send. Book more appointments.

How to Use These Templates

Each template below is ready to copy and paste directly into a text message. Replace anything in [brackets] with your specific details. The more personal you make it, the better it performs.

One rule: only send these if you mean them. These texts work because they feel personal — not automated. Take 10 seconds to add a detail specific to that client before you hit send.

Template 1 — 4-Week Reminder (Color Client)

When to send: Send this 4 weeks after a color appointment. Works for balayage, highlights, root touch-ups, any color service.

Hey [name]! It's been about a month since your last color — just wanted to check in and see how it's holding up. I have some openings coming up if you're thinking about coming in. Just reply and I'll send you some times!

Pro tip: Keep it casual. Don't say 'your roots are showing' — say 'how's it holding up.' Let them come to that conclusion themselves.

Template 2 — 4-Week Reminder (Cut Client)

When to send: Send this 4 weeks after a haircut. Works especially well for shorter cuts and precision styles.

Hey [name]! Just thinking about you — it's been about a month since your cut and I know [her style] starts to lose its shape right around now. Want to get you back in before it gets too grown out. I have some spots open — does [day] or [day] work?

Pro tip: Reference the specific style if you remember it. Even a vague mention like 'your style' feels personal enough.

Template 3 — 6-Week Overdue (Any Service)

When to send: Send this when a client is 6+ weeks overdue. Warm and slightly playful — no guilt.

Hey [name]! Miss seeing you in the chair It's been a little while — [service] tends to start showing some wear right around now. I've got a couple spots open this week and next if you want to get back in. Just say the word!

Pro tip: The emoji softens it. 'Just say the word' makes it effortless to respond. Never use the word 'overdue.'

Template 4 — Win-Back (90+ Days Quiet)

When to send: Send this when a client hasn't booked in 3+ months. Warm, no pressure, leaves the door open.

Hey [name]! It's been a minute — hope everything's been great with you! Whenever you're ready to come back in, just reach out and I'll get you sorted. I always have time for you

Pro tip: No offer. No discount. No pressure. Just a warm, genuine check-in. This alone brings back 15–25% of lapsed clients.

Template 5 — After a Big Transformation

When to send: Send this 24–48 hours after a major color, cut, or style change. While they're still in the glow.

Hey [name]! Still thinking about your [transformation] from yesterday — you looked absolutely incredible. How are you feeling about it today? I have a feeling you're going to love it more every day Let me know if you have any questions about your routine!

Pro tip: This text does three things: reinforces their confidence, opens a homecare conversation, and makes them feel like more than just a client.
