CUSTOMIZE AND LAUNCH

BEFORE YOU USE IT

Make the system feel personal.

Use this file as the polished base. Replace brackets, offers, services, client details, and local language so every asset sounds like the business using it.

THE RULE

Keep the strategy intact, but make every client-facing line specific. Beauty buyers respond to trust, taste, timing, and a sense that the experience was designed for them.

BEST PRACTICE

Batch the assets weekly. Turn prompts into posts, templates into follow-ups, and brand direction into a consistent client experience across every touchpoint.

Each template below is ready to copy and paste directly into a text message. Replace anything in [brackets] with your specific details. The more personal you make it, the better it performs. One rule: only send these if you mean them. These texts work because they feel personal — not automated. Take 10 seconds to add a detail specific to that client before you hit send.

Template 1 4-Week Reminder (Color Client)

When to send: Send this 4 weeks after a color appointment. Works for balayage, highlights, root touch-ups, any color service. Hey [name]! It's been about a month since your last color — just wanted to check in and see how it's holding up. I have some openings coming up if you're thinking about coming in. Just reply and I'll send you some times! Pro tip: Keep it casual. Don't say 'your roots are showing' — say 'how's it holding up.' Let them come to that

Studio note: Use this as a polished starting point, then add one real detail so the finished asset feels personal.

Just thinking about you — it's been about a month since your cut and I know [her style] starts to lose its shape right around now. Want to get you back in before it gets too grown out. I have some spots open — does [day] or [day] work? Pro tip: Reference the specific style if you remember it. Even a vague mention like 'your style' feels personal enough.

Template 3 6-Week Overdue (Any Service)

CUSTOMIZE BEFORE USE

When to send: Send this when a client is 6+ weeks overdue. Warm and slightly playful — no guilt. Hey [name]! Just say the word! Pro tip: The emoji softens it. 'Just say the word' makes it effortless to respond. Never use the word 'overdue.'
