How To Use These Templates

- Replace all [brackets] with your patient's name, treatment, and practice details.
- Keep the tone warm and human — patients respond to empathy, not clinical formality.
- These work as emails, SMS texts, and patient portal messages — shorten to 2–3 sentences for text.
- Always personalize the first line — AI does this in seconds.
- Save top performers as templates in your practice management software (Dentrix, Eaglesoft, etc.).

Subject It's Been A While — We've Been Thinking Of You, [First Name]

BODY Hi [First Name], It's been about a year since your last visit at [Practice Name] and we wanted to reach out and check in. Regular cleanings and check-ups are the best way to catch small issues before they become big (and expensive) ones — and it's always easier to stay on top of things than to play catch-up. We'd love to get you back in. Reply here or call [Phone] to schedule — we'll work around your schedule. Hope you're doing well! The [Practice Name] Team

Subject A Personal Note From Dr. [Name]

BODY Hi [First Name], I wanted to reach out personally — it's been over a year since we last saw you at [Practice Name] and I just wanted to check in. If life got in the way (it always does), I completely understand. If there's a specific reason you haven't been back — cost, anxiety, scheduling — please let me know. I'd rather talk it through than have you go without care. We have flexible scheduling, payment plan options, and a team that genuinely cares about making your visit comfortable. I hope to see you soon. Dr. [Name] | [Practice Name] | [Phone] End-of-Year Insurance Benefits

Subject Your Dental Benefits Expire December 31 — Use Them Or Lose Them

BODY Hi [First Name], Quick heads-up — your dental insurance benefits reset on January 1, which means any unused benefits expire December 31. If you haven't used your benefits for a cleaning, exam, or any outstanding treatment this year, now is the time. Here's what your plan likely covers before year-end: - Routine cleaning and exam (usually 100% covered)

Subject Time For The Kids' Back-To-School Dental Checkup!

BODY Hi [First Name], With school starting soon, it's a great time to get the kids' dental checkups done before the busy season kicks in. Regular checkups catch cavities early, make sure teeth are developing properly, and (bonus) teach kids that going to the dentist is no big deal. We have family appointment slots available — we can often see siblings back-to-back to save you trips. Call [Phone] or book online at [link]. Hope everyone's ready for a great school year! BODY Hi [First Name], I wanted to follow up after your visit and see if you have any questions about the treatment plan we discussed. I know it can be a lot to take in during an appointment — so if anything is unclear, or if you'd like me to walk through it again, please don't hesitate to reach out. A quick note: [Most common concern for this treatment — e.g., 'A crown protects a tooth that's vulnerable to fracture. The longer we wait, the more likely a fracture becomes — which can turn a crown into an extraction.'] Whenever you're ready to schedule, just reply here or call [Phone]. We'll take great care of you.
