Subject Re: Your Wedding Photography Inquiry — [Names]

Hi [Names], Thank you so much for reaching out — your wedding on [date] at [venue] sounds absolutely beautiful, and [one specific detail they mentioned] really caught my attention. [One sentence on how you'd approach their specific wedding — reference their style or venue]. A few quick questions before I put together a full response: Have you had a chance to look at a photographer's galleries in detail? And what does your timeline look like for making a decision? Would a 20-minute call work for you this week? I have availability [two specific times]. I'd love to hear more about your day. [Your Name] | [Studio Name] | [Phone]

How To Feel Natural:

- I'll guide you throughout — you don't need to know any poses - Focus on each other, not the camera. The best shots happen when you forget I'm there - [Your #1 natural couples tip — e.g., 'Walk slowly holding hands and talk to each other'] Arrive [X] minutes early so we can chat before we start. Any questions? I'm just a message away. See you soon! [Your Name] | [Studio Name]

Subject A Personal Ask — [Names]

Hi [Names], I hope you've had some time to look through your gallery and relive some of those moments. A personal ask: if you're happy with your photos — and I genuinely hope you are — a Google review from a couple I've loved working with means more to my business than almost any advertising. It helps other couples in [City] find a photographer they can trust for the most important day of their lives. Direct link: [Google Review Link]. Takes about 2 minutes. No pressure at all — I just wanted to ask personally rather than send a generic automated message. Thank you for trusting me with your day, [Names]. It was an honor.
