Subject Talking Through Your Floral Vision And Investment — [Name]

Dear [Name], Thank you for sharing your budget — it's always helpful to have this conversation early so we can plan the most beautiful flowers possible within the numbers. With $[their budget] for your wedding, here is what I'd suggest prioritising: [Arrangement type 1 — e.g., Your bouquet]: this is what guests photograph most, and it travels through every photo. I'd recommend investing here. [Arrangement type 2 — e.g., Ceremony florals]: creates the backdrop for your most important moment.

Subject Talking Through Your Floral Vision And Investment — [Name]

[What to scale back]: [honest suggestion about where to simplify without losing impact] [One alternative if their budget is significantly below your minimum]: 'If the investment feels like a stretch, one option is to focus entirely on [key element] and keep the rest very simple — sometimes restraint creates the most elegant result.' I'd love to talk through the options on a call if that would help. [Your Name] | [Studio Name] T4 — Post-Consultation Proposal Follow-Up

Subject Your Flower Care Guide — [Name]

Dear [Name], Alongside your beautiful arrangement today, here is a quick guide to keeping your flowers looking their best: On arrival: trim the stems at a 45-degree angle, remove any leaves below the waterline, and place in fresh cool water. Daily: top up the water and re-trim the stems every 2-3 days. Placement: keep away from direct sunlight, heat sources, and fruit (ethylene gas speeds wilting). Temperature: flowers last longest in a cool room — below 18°C is ideal overnight. Expected vase life: [X days] for most of the varieties in your arrangement.
