Subject Re: Speaking inquiry — [Event Name]

Dear [Name], Thank you so much for reaching out — [event name] sounds like a genuinely exciting opportunity and exactly the kind of audience my work resonates most strongly with. [2-3 sentences showing you understand their audience and event objective — be specific, not generic.] Before I put together a full proposal, it would help to know: [2-3 specific questions — talk duration, any other speakers on the bill, specific outcomes the organizer is hoping for]. In the meantime, I have attached my speaker one-sheet and a link to my speaker reel: [link].

SPEAKER ASSET

Subject Re: Speaking inquiry — [Event Name]

My speaking fee for a keynote of this length is typically in the range of $[X]-$[X], depending on format and logistics. Would a 20-minute call this week work to discuss further? I have availability [two specific times]. Warm regards, [Your Name] T2 — Post-Discovery Call Proposal

Subject Speaking Proposal — [Event Name] — [Your Name]

Dear [Name], It was wonderful speaking with you today — I am genuinely excited about [event name] and the opportunity to work with [audience description]. PROPOSED TALK: [Talk Title] [2-3 paragraphs describing the talk — what it covers, how it is structured, the key outcomes audiences leave with, why it is particularly relevant to this audience right now. Be specific and compelling.] FORMAT: [Keynote / Workshop / Panel] — [Duration] DELIVERY: [In-person / Virtual / Hybrid] INVESTMENT: $[amount], which includes: - Pre-event discovery call with [Name] to customize for your audience

Subject Re: Speaking Fee — [Event Name]

Dear [Name], Thank you for being upfront about your budget — I really appreciate that. I understand that $[their budget] is what you are working with, and I want to find a way to make this work if I can. My standard fee reflects the customisation I bring to every talk — the pre- event research, the tailoring to your specific audience, and the post-event materials. For an audience of [size] at [type of event], I genuinely believe the return on a $[your fee] investment is significant. That said,

Subject Re: Speaking Fee — [Event Name]

let me explore what might be possible: [Option if you can flex]: If a [shorter format / virtual option / shared session with another speaker] would work, I could potentially deliver that at $[adjusted amount]. [If you cannot flex]: Unfortunately I am unable to reduce my fee further for this format, but I would be happy to discuss a different scope that fits your budget. I would love to be at [event name] — let me know what direction you would like to explore. Warm regards, [Your Name] T4 — Unavailable / Waitlist Response

Dear [Name], Thank you again for [event name] — it was one of my favorite engagements of the year. I have a personal ask: a written testimonial or LinkedIn recommendation from you would mean an enormous amount to my speaking business. Testimonials from event organizers of your seniority and credibility carry real weight. To make it as easy as possible — if it helps, here are a few prompts to guide you: - What was the audience's response to the talk? - What specifically did the talk deliver for your event's objectives? - Would you recommend me to other organizers, and if so,
