I'd handle all videography: a full highlight film and short social clips for both our portfolios. What I'm looking for: your photography. What I can offer: complete video footage from the shoot for your portfolio, co-marketing on release, and the foundation of a referral relationship built on actually working together. This works especially well for [type of couples] — and I think our styles are genuinely complementary. Would a quick call to talk through it work? [Your Name] | [Studio Name] | [Instagram]
